The race this time occurred between a bakery and a meat house, and the meat house was just a little bit too lively for the bakery. T-bone steaks are flying thick and fast round the Cows Corner Cafe, and Bradbury this time had to pay over ten of them to Jess Hailstone, whom he thought he could beat in a sprinting match. The round the block race seem to be a prevalent quantity with 'Arry. This time the bread hadn't risen enough to run so 'Arry was beaten.
